SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF WILLIAM HOWARD RESTORATIVE Russell. - Wm. 11. Russell, journalist and cor-respondent of the Lendon Times in the Crimea, was born in Huddin in the year 1816. His parents were engaged in trade, and the young Irishmar having displayed considerable ability at a school having displayed considerable annity at a scool celebrated among the middling class a fair retire capital, completed his education at Trinity College. On leaving that seat of learning, Mr. Russell, with that "aspiring vein," peculiar to rial of his fortune at the English har, his residence in London and entered himsolf at the Temple as a student of law. He soon dis-covered that the probability of his reaching the woolack was ex remely slander; and having been introduced by an ancie, largely connected with paper, he obtained a signation on their staff as a reporter. Mr. Rossell was now "the right man UNIVERSAL CONFIDENCE! n the right place "
The rapidity with which his roles were preparal, and the admirably concise detail atlorded i them, seen became a subject of remark in the new-paper world; and shor by afterward Mr. Rus-nell received an offer from the proprietur of thu Merning Chronicle for su e vears, until, on the reper chinging hands, he declined to receives reduction of salary, and returned to the service the Times. Mr. Russell, as a reporter in the policy of the House of Communs, was selected f every of the figure of Communa, was selected for every occasion requiring peculiar vivi mass of description, and wo to all accounts of Irial trips, while lumches, & , having always had a great taste for naurical matters. On the outbreak of the Russian war, have as dequied to be the special correspondent of the lines in the Crimal, and ac ing public attention. With the exception of a sejourn of a month, at Thurspia, where he went for the benefit of his heal h, Mr. Russel lived with the Fourth Divician says of it: and jointly have rendered him an especial favor-lte. His latters from the Crimea were subse-quently published in one volume under the title of The British Exaction to the Crimea. Be-

Inquiringly, "What do you mean, sir, by that? Won't belling water kill the seed?" "Not at all," he replied; "but it would sprout It will? It looks incredible!" I replied with eurprise.
"Will you try it." he replied, "when the time comes to plat, and you will find it just as I tell you."

And sure enough, when spring came and my and have a shout planting his onion seed, and I had seed a number of certificates of the very worder. neighbor was about planting his onion seed, and an lowa that to pour boiling water on the water that would sprout it in one minute. Suppose you try would sprout it in one minute. Suppose you try would sprout it in one minute. Suppose you try it."

"Very well," sall he; and taking the tea-kettle belief to make the solid part of the water that belief to belief the shift of a moment, he exclaimed: "My conscience, you have told rightly. Only look a there."

I looked and belief the little sprouts about as large as horse hairs, were sprouting out of the canding and in the seeds. I led did not retain the water on the seed above three seconds, and in less than one half minute after it was poured off the sprouts were projecting from the seeds. Sprouts were projecting from the seeds.

Suppose you try experiment, commencing in a small way. I purchase of your small bottles, at one dollar, and common to chis, it is for a moment, he exclaimed.
